WRIDGWAYS RATED WORLD'S NUMBER ONE

Wridgways The WorldWide Movers has been rated as the world's best International relocation company for the year 2007 within USA based Graebel Relocation Alliance Network.

The ratings were completed globally by over 5,000 customers who had their household goods and personal effects moved internationally. The scope of movements included more than 100 countries involving over 130 of the world's leading international moving organisations.

Wridgways The WorldWide Movers was also rated as the Number One Quality Mover in the Asia Pacific region against a number of outstanding Asian international moving companies. This is the first time any Australian company has been rated first in the world or the Asia Pacific region.

Wridgways Australia Limited Managing Director, Des Stickland, said, "We were thrilled to be rated the best in Asia Pacific but then to be rated number one in the world, particularly against over 130 of the very best international moving organisations globally, was fantastic. This is testimony to the amazing commitment, dedication and absolute professionalism of our great team at Wridgways."
